The Suffolk County Human Rights Commission lauds the Obama administration's new policy on immigration.

The Suffolk County Human Rights Commission, through its Chairperson Rabbi Dr. Steven A. Moss, expressed support for the President's bold new immigration policy. Rabbi Moss commended the President for his courage in taking this first and necessary step forward to fix the immigration system and also in recognizing the talent, potential and valuable contributions of immigrants living here in our Nation and our County as our family, friends and neighbors.
